

Kindy songline

The kindy songline was created to represent the positive kindy experience for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children, parents and communities.

The songline tells the story of a child's time at kindy and how their family and community are an important part of their early learning and development.

Nine motifs, each with individual meaning, are woven together by tracks to show the momentum of little ones moving through the kindy journey and learning through play.

Find out more about the songline and the kindy learning journey on www.qld.gov.au/letsyarn

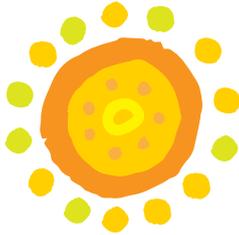

Child

Family

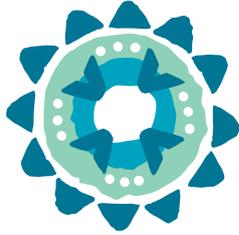

Community

Educator

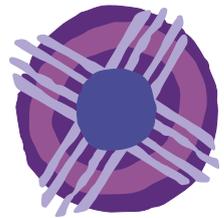

Play

Learning

Growth

Trust

Culture